

Customer Referral Program

Get up to $1,500
for referring a new customer to LOGIX

Do you know any companies that could use LOGIX's built for business phone or internet services?

Refer a new customer to LOGIX and you or your company benefits too.

The process is easy, simply:

1. Visit logix.com/customer-referral.
2. Submit a Customer Referral form.
3. A LOGIX sales team member will follow-up on your referral within three business days.
4. If the company you refer signs an agreement with LOGIX, your business will receive an invoice credit of 100% of the Monthly Recurring Revenue (MRR), up to $1,500 of the referred sale.

Thank you for the compliment of a referral.

To be eligible for the referral invoice credit, the referred prospective customer must be a new LOGIX customer and the new service agreement must be signed within 90 days of the referral. Referral invoice credit will be for 100% of the Monthly Recurring Revenue (MRR), up to $1,500 of the referred sale and will be paid after referred customer pays the first invoice. Referral invoice credit to be paid approximately 60 days after first invoice is paid. LOGIX may change terms at any time. Additional conditions may apply.
